SPIRITS

Your choice of bottle, glass

Louis XIII — $5,500

Created in 1874 by Paul-Émile Rémy Martin, Louis XIII cognac is the ultimate symbol of French prestige. A blend of over 1,200 eaux-de-vie from Grande Champagne, some aged over 100 years, it is matured in century-old oak casks. Each crystal decanter is a handmade work of art.

Hennessy Paradis — $3,500

Hennessy Paradis, created in 1979 by Master Blender Maurice Fillioux, is a cognac of rare elegance. Crafted from a blend of eaux-de-vie carefully preserved in the Maison's 'paradis' cellars, it captivates with its silky texture and harmonious aromas of jasmine, dried fruits, and soft spices.

Héritage de Fussigny – 200 ans — $3,000

Héritage de Fussigny – 200 Years is a prestigious limited edition created to celebrate the bicentenary (1814–2014) of Maison A. de Fussigny, established on the banks of the Charente River. This exceptional cognac, made exclusively from Grande Champagne, is a subtle blend of eaux-de-vie aged from 30 to over 100 years.

Imperial Collection — $3,000

Created by the Ladoga Group in Russia, this recipe is inspired by a blend originally crafted for Tsar Peter the Great in 1721. Distilled four to twelve times using 'Saratovskaya' wheat and crystal-clear water from Lake Ladoga. A super-premium vodka presented in a case inspired by Fabergé™eggs. A true jewel to be savored and displayed.

King George V — $2,000

King George V by Johnnie Walker pays tribute to the Royal Warrant granted in 1934. Crafted from rare whiskies sourced from distilleries operating at the time, including the legendary Port Ellen, it offers deep aromas of dried fruits, subtle smoke, dark chocolate, and refined spices.

Glenfiddich Grand Couronne 26 ans — $2,000

26 years

Glenfiddich Grand Couronne 26 Year Old is an exceptional single malt, aged in American oak casks and finished in French cognac casks. It captivates with its unique elegance: notes of pastry, toasted oak, cinnamon, and a final touch of floral sweetness.

Ballantine's 30 ans — $1,200

30 years

Ballantine's 30 Year Old is an exceptional Scotch whisky, reserved for connoisseurs. Slowly aged in carefully selected oak casks, it reveals remarkable complexity: notes of honey, vanilla, toasted oak, and a long, refined finish.

Clase Azul — $1,000

8mo

Created by the Clase Azul distillery in the highlands of Jalisco. Each decanter is handcrafted in the village of Santa María Canchesda, mostly by women, and can take up to two weeks to complete. This ultra-premium reposado tequila is made from 100% Blue Weber agave and aged for eight months in American bourbon barrels.
